To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to voice my strong support for the continuation of “Sesame Street”, PBS News Hour, Frontline, the American Experience and NOVA on the Public Broadcasting System in Orlando Florida. I do so because I believe that that this is high quality programming and represents a real value for the tax dollars that are spent.

I also write in strong protest of the possibility of replacing such high calibre educational television with the dogmatic rhetoric of John Hagee, who has called Catholicism “a Godless theology of hate”, has said that Moslems have “a spiritual mandate to kill Christians and Jews”, that the Holocaust was punishment for Jewish “disobedience” and “rebellion”. Such hateful drivel is divisive and corrosive to the public discourse, and though Mr. Hagee has a right to express his opinions, no matter how despicable, I think the children of Orlando and all across America are much better off with Big Bird.

Please keep PBS on the air.

Sincerely,
Bruce Jones
